McMahon proved too much for the New Yorks sterday, and for the third time the Baltimore owned the New Yorks. The Brooklyns failed grasp the opportunity of moving up two pegs the race, for they couldn't hit Keener, and nsequently were laid low by the Quakers, to by their victory were enabled to pass the cagos. BALTIMORE, 6; NEW YORK, 2. BALTIMORE, July 1. - McMahon was too much or the New Yorks to-day. Tiernan alone gauged is delivery, and, as the rest of the hits were retty well scattered, his good stick work went or naught. But for errors by Doyle and Jennings, the visitors would have been shut out. Barring these two mishaps, the Orioles playest a fast game in the field, while their daring base running contributed not a little to the run getting. The New Yorks were not a bit slow in the field, Gleason and W. Clarke being very much in the game. Campfield pitched finely, four of the ten hits charged against him being infield scratches. These, with two long drives, came together in three linnings and let the champions score their six runs.

the ten hits charged against him being infeld scratches. These, with two long drives, came together in three innings and let the champions score their six runs.

Up to the fourth inning not an Orlole reached second base, though two reached first. In the fourth, however, keeler started with a triple to right field. Jennings then tried to knock the sail out of the lot, but ingloriously struck out. Joyle was more successful. He drove a hard one at Connaughton, which that player could not handle, and Keeler scored. In the lifth big sill Clarke made a great catch of Brodle's iner, robbing that player of a triple. Donnelly then singled, and Catcher Clarke hit the ball along the first base line for two bags. McMahon ouled out, but Kelley crove the ball over third, lavis made a great effort to get the ball, which truck one hand and bounded into the field. Jonnelly and Clarke scoring.

In the sixth Jennings was hit by a pitched sail, and reached second on Doyle's scratch hit, which Connaughton stopped, but could not ield. The two runners were advanced on telta's sucrifice. Brodle hit back of first and lennings scored, and on Donnelly's force Doyle ame in. Glarke then hit to right field just as Donnelly started to steal, and by great base running Donnelly scored. Not another hit was made off Campfield after this. Meanwhile McMahon was mowing down the New Yorks in great shape. They scored one run in the third, when Campfield lined a beauty to right centre for two bases. Van Haltren followed with a single to centre, but the ball was returned so quickly that Campfield was seld at third. Then followed a peculiar play, an was away off the bag, and McMahon fired to ball to Doyle, who had him by two feet, but opped the ball. It fell under him, but he inclined it had gone beyond, and while he was king about him Campfield cane home. In night finning G. Davis led off with a pretty maie, and reached second on Tiernan's out. Ileason singled and stole second on Tiernan's out. Ileason singled and stole second just as H. Davis struck o

Young Keener, the Philadelphia's new pitcher, has a slow delivery, which, from the grand stand point of view, looks easy, and a cannon-de of hits was momentarily expected at Eastern Park yesterday, but the rally that was looked for never came. In only one inning was there y indication that the critical moment had rived. That occurred in the fifth inning, sen, with two out, three slashing hits followed each other in rapid succession, and wener was in anything but a happy od. Three of the Quakers' hits were atches, and the two runs scored in the sixth ing would not have been scored with perfecting. In the fourth inning, while running r Brouthers's high foul, Burrill collided the players' bench. Dave Fout failed to pup in time, and when the bench went over attrailly was sent surgeling hackward. aturally was sent sprawling backward to ground. The score:

AND LITHOS WINS AGAIN. BRITANNIC'S SON . LANDS THE

SURF STAKES AT SHEEPSHEAD. He Was Favorite and Beat a Likely Field in Clever Style-Two Races for J. H. Me-Cormack-Captain T. Surprises the Talent

Lithes won the Surf Stakes at Sheepshead Bay yesterday afternoon in commanding style and has now placed more than $12,000 to the credit of Trewbridge & Co., who bought him from the Messrs. Morris before the opening of the Gravesend meeting for $5,000. The bal ance of yesterday's programme at the Bay was remarkable for the form shown by James H McCormack's Peep o' Day and Irlah Reel, the colt beating a big field in the opening dash at five furiongs, while the mare outran such highclass horses as Patrician and Hornpipe in the dash at a mile. The weather was delightful

Lithos was the favorite for the Surf Stakes at 9 to 5, but he was closely pressed for the position of honor by J. W. Rogers's big colt Roder-mond., Haphazard and Remp were the most fancied of the others. Lithos made play from the start, with Rodermond his nearest attendant. Hart kept a nice pull on the black colt, and did not ask for a decided burst of speed until opposite the old betting ring, when he rushed the favorite to the post and achieved a most decided victory. Rodermond faltered in the last sixteenth of a mile, and Clayton, riding a very strong finish, snatched second money with Remp. Haphazard was fourth. The winner is improving daily, and from being lathy and weedy at Washington has developed into a colt of beautiful form and considerable substance. There is a general impression that five furlongs is as far as Lithos cares to go in good company, but yesterday he seemed capable of beating his field at three-quarters of a mile. Britannic could not stay, and this is probably the reason why the talent have put down the son as lacking the same qualification

Woodvine was favorite at 8 to 5 for the first race, a dash at five furlongs. Tremargo and Med-Woodvine was favorite at 8 to 5 for the first race, a dash at five furlongs. Tremarge and Medica, owned by the Sensation Stable, and coupled in the betting, created terror at the post by their kicking and bad behavior. The lining-up gate was used, but after a deisy of over half an hour the flag was thrown, with Religion left at the post and Tremarge and Hazlet so badly off that they were practically left. Medica, the cause of most of the delay and which should have been left at the post twenty minutes earlier in the game, tried to outsprint Peep o' Day for the lead, but Hamilton rushed the imported throe-year-old along, and the further he went the easier it was for him to win, the son of Ayrshire finally winning by tree lengths. Medica was second, two lengths before Juno, who beat Lady Greenway a short head for third money. Religion got caught in the machine in one of the breaks and tore a hole in the barrier, besides injuring her mouth slightly.

Burlesque gave a startling exhibition of gameness in the second event, a dash over the Futurity course for two-year-olds. This colt is owned by Charles T. Patterson of Kentucky, and is a stable companion of Ornament, winner of the Double Event, and 's segarded as being quite as good as any colt of his age out this year. Burlesque's Western reputation warranted his being played to beat his field yesterday, particularly when Suisum and St. Cloud were withdrawn. Taral was told that the colt was dead game, and he took his best whip along when to weight. Royal Rose sprinted away in the lead, and Taral went to work on Burlesque in lively fashion to avoid being outrup by the entire field. It was a case of thump and slug, and it looked like any odds on Royal Rose winning the race at the elbow. Taral kept riding away, and every time he hit Burlesque the colt went to work with renewed vigor. Royal Rose was finally overhauled by the plodding Burlesque, and as she swerved near the wire the cole came on and won a good race by a length. Panmure, by Tenny, beat Meadowthorpe a head f then and there as the others were tip-toeing to get to her. Patrician, under Simms's driving finish, got into second place, four lengths before Jefferson. Sir Francis was a good fourth. Hornpipe had no speed at any part of the race. Hrisk was a good second for over six fur-longs.

Graziosa was the choice of the maiden three

Graziosa was the choice of the maiden three-year-olds at a mile, and she won cleverly enough, beating a poor lot. Bellport was second and Brilliancy third.

The flual run, at a mile and a furlong over the grass course, was won by the outsider Captain T, at 8 and 10 to 1. W. Steare's pair, Marshall and The Native, were favorites at 8 to 5, with Doggett second choice at 9 to 5. The race was run to suit Captain T, there being no pace dur-ing the early part of it, and when it came to a game of sprint Captain T, outran Doggett and won by a length. Lansdale was third. Had the pace been fast from the start Captain T, would probably not have won.

cace been fast from the start capability of the weight probably not have won. The time, 1:50-1:5, for the mile and a furlong, shows how slow the first part of the race was, shows how slow the first part of the race was. The winner had a strong rull in the weights, Marshall conceding him eleven pounds. The Native and Lansdale ten pounds each, and Doggett eight pounds. The talent did not figure him as having a chance in spite of this, and him as having a chance in spite of the start there was some strong talk about the horse's improvement in form. Summary follows:

201 West 10th St., New York, YALE MEN MAKE GOOD PROGRESS.

They Revert to American Cars and Show Promising Speed at Henley. HENLEY, July 1.-The Yale men were out on the water at 11 o'clock to-day. Clarke, the cox-swain, having fully recovered from his attack of tonsilitis, was in his place in the boat. The crew rowed up the river and returned to their boat house, where they exchanged their new English cars for their old ones. They ther rowed over the last half of the course in 3:24, at a stroke of thirty-eight to the minute. The Leander crew rowed over the first half in 3:31 and the full course in 7:10, at a thirty-eight stroke. Trinity Hall rowed over the full course in 7:23. They were paced for the last half by the second Trinity Hall crew.

Capt. Treadway, after the practice, said that the American oars felt better in the hands of the men than the English ones. It has not been definitely decided as yet which of the two styles of oars the crew will use in the race for the Grand Challenge Cup. The new shell which the Yale crew will use in the race was rigged to-day. The weather this forenoon was which the Yale crew will use in the race was showery.

The Yale men were out again for practice at 6 o'clock this evening, and at the request of Sir Charles Dilke, M. P., rowed over the last haif of the course. They covered the distance in 3:20, rowing thirty-six and thirty-eight to the minute. The American oars were used, and it is stated that the Yale crew will not again use the English blades, and that the sides will be placed in the old style. Cook expresses himself as greatly pleased and encouraged by the work of the crew.

The New College crew this afternoon rowed over a course a length longer than that covered by the Yale men, making the distance in 3:22 at a thirty-eight to forty stroke. The Balliol College men paced the Leander and Trinity Hall crews on short struches this afternoon, but the time made was not taken. The weather was unpleasant, there being a steady fall of rain.

LONDON, July 1.—Mr. Ellington, the rowing expert of the Field, wires to the United Press from Henley as follows:

"The Yale crew were very much better in their work to-day. In rowing over half the course this forenoon they started badiy, but soon settled down to excellent work, covering a great deal of water. They are assuredly a fast crew. The Leanders' fluish was very unsatisfactory. The New College crew rowed very fast in a burst of one minute's duration at a forty-two stroke."

The Imported Yacht Canada Again Beaten. TORONTO, July 1.—The yacht Canada, designed by Fife of the Clyde, Scotland, and brought on here to represent the Dominion in the international yacht race at Toledo next month, was badly beaten to-day in a trial race by Commodor Lucas's yacht Zelma. The Zelma beat the Canada on Saturday, but the defeat was then Canada on Saturday, but the defeat was then attributed to the fact that the Canada's sails did not set, and it was expected she would have done better to-day.

The race was for the Queen's Cup, a prize for yachts of the 42-foot class. The course was twenty-five miles, twice around a triangular course. The breeze was light and the Zeima won by ten minutes. Viava was second, and the Canada was thirteen minutes behind the winner. winner.

Raymond McDonald of Staten Island, the professional bicycle rider who accommanied John S. Johnson abroad and raced in France, returned home late Tuesday evening. McDonald's hasty return has provoked rumars that there was trouble between this young rider and his trainer. Thomas Eck, and McDonald's statements substantiste this suspicion. Me-Donald was in class il last year, and upon his departure from this country in April he signified his intention of taking part in the bicycle races at the Olympic games. His entry as an amateur was, however, rejected, and he elected to ride in professional events. While abroad, McDonald won eight out of twelve races in which he took part, and was making a much better showing than Johnson.

McDonald claims that he did not receive any of the purses that he won, and he finally became so dissatisfied with Eck's dictatorial methods that he decided to sever his connection with the team and return home to race in this country. He thinks that Johnson's poor performances on the other side are due to the use of too high a racing gear and a lack of familiarity with the foreign racing customs. He predicts that Johnson will improve wonderfully in a week or two and astonish the foreigners.

Peter Berlo, who is riding in the professional

Peter Berlo, who is riding in the professional ranks, is one of the oldest racing men on the nath to-day, and he also has the reputation of being one of the fastest. Berlo believes that he has a "quint" team that can beat any similar team in this country, and he intends to shortly issue a challenge to race any team for $500 a side. Berlo's team will probably include himself, Nat Butler, F. Maya, and B. Saunderg, Berlo will place no restrictions upon how the race shall he ron. A race of this character would be interesting.
